

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

MINNEAPOLIS SUNDAY TRIBUNE

4B

G

Feb. 3, 1963

Sheppard's 'Fiancee' Tells Story

CLEVELAND, Ohio—(UPI)

The brown-eyed platinum blonde from Duesseldorf, West Germany had been gay and smiling, but she burst into tears as she began to talk of her "engagement" to Dr. Sam Sheppard.

Mrs. Tebbenhahn said, "I'm tired of saying over and over again that I'm sincere," said Mrs. Ariane Tebbenhahn.

"They say the most horrible things, that I do this only for show. Don't they understand that people have revolutions because they want to fight for something they believe in?"

The 33-year-old divorced dried her eyes and went on with the interview in her motel suite. She wore a black wool suit trimmed with a white fur collar and cuffs. She glanced often at the mirror above the dressing table.

FRIDAY she had heard the news that Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes had turned down a clemency request for Sheppard, serving a life sentence for second degree murder in

United Press International

JOAN BRENDA, Jackson, Minn., got hugged by two other Minnesotans Friday night after she was named Minnesota Cherry Blossom Princess for 1964 in Washington, D.C. At left is GEN. LAURIS NORSTAD, former commander of NATO and longtime Red Wing, Minn., resident. At right is SEN. HUBERT HUMPHREY, D-Minn. The occasion was the annual Congressional Reception and Dinner Dance given by the Minnesota State Society of Washington.

CHARLES E. BOHLEN, U.S. ambassador to France, arrived in the resort city of Cannes on the French Riviera for a week's rest following his release from a Paris hospital for treatment of a slight eye ailment.

KING PAUL and QUEEN FREDERIKA of Greece arrived in New Delhi, India, for a 12-day state visit.

Frederika

it, accompanied by their daughter, PRINCESS IRENE.

SANDOR KONYA, Metropolitan Opera singer, became the latter by replacing the KARI LIEB in the lead of the Met's planned presentation of "The Flying Dutchman." The management canceled the performance and substituted "Ariadne auf Naxos."